

Dena Lucy I wish you would be an alderman, you're the only one of us that shut down the trolls & leave the political body with their tails between their legs. You're well spoken, informed & unemotional when posting. And yes, the library is being punished enough. Trizna would love to see it bulldozed and a Barnes & Noble in its place.

Kathy Panattoni Meade We need to take our concern to the city council meetings. If they don't listen (and I don't think they will since the mayor stated in the Herald that he will be staying out of this) then we need to amp up.

Nichole Flynn the fact that they seem intent on doing whatever they want, without any concern for what the public wants, seems like something the mayor should pay attention to. the fact that we have a library board led by a man who refers to library patrons as leech...See More

Kathy Panattoni Meade For what it's worth I do kind of like our mayor. He is an active participant on the local Park Ridge political boards. He has been more receptive to hearing from citizens in a more respectable manor than our last mayor. I am disappointed that he is on record as wanting to stay out of the library board doings.

Nichole Flynn i just find it hard to believe that the Mayor seems to find nothing wrong with a library board member who seemingly hates the library and it's freeloading patrons.

Dena Lucy The entire situation is bizarro. And a huge embarrassment.

Kathy Panattoni Meade I am suspicious about that as well. When the town was looking to retain a new law firm there were 3 law firms up for review. Two aldermen (of which the mayor is still an alderman to retain his voting privileges) voted to hire Bob Trinza's law firm—Knight and the Mayor. The city council ultimately went with another law firm.

Dana Bozeday City council....here's what will happen. They will listen, then table ideas or votes, push back to another day. Keep giving you hope they will do something but they won't. They will just wait until people forget or just don't care anymore. That's how P...See More

Dena Lucy It does seem incredibly corrupt - trading business favors for votes to make money. It's corruption cloaked in ideology. I guess the majority of people who run for these unpaid positions, do so for personal/financial benefit. If the aldermen & mayor were full time, paid positions, maybe the wishes of taxpayers would be a priority.
