Summary

Congratulations to Jeannie Dilger on her appointment as the new Director of the Palatine Public Library District! We were honored to assist the library with the search and enjoyed working with the library staff and board of trustees.

The Board of Trustees of Palatine Public Library District in Palatine, Illinois, seeks an enthusiastic and creative leader to serve as Director.

This is an outstanding opportunity to lead a forward-moving library that has a friendly staff dedicated to serving the public, library board trustees who possess a strong sense of civic duty and are active library advocates, and a community that celebrates diversity (70 languages spoken!).

Located in northwest suburban Chicago, Palatine Public Library District provides library service to approximately 89,000 people, including residents of the Village of Palatine and parts of the Village of Hoffman Estates. Palatine offers a strong sense of community while also providing the convenience of easy access to a larger metropolitan area.

The Palatine Public Library Director will be expected to:

- Lead the staff and the library in a highly professional manner, fostering teamwork, collaboration, and trust
- Advocate for the library and enthusiastically participate in community events and organizations
- Continue to move the library forward to best serve the needs of the community

This opportunity requires an individual with the following qualities:

- A sense of humor, intellectual curiosity, and an eagerness to explore new ideas
- An understanding of both traditional and emerging trends in how libraries serve their communities
- Strong leadership skills, with the ability to inspire staff, board, and the community

Additional requirements:

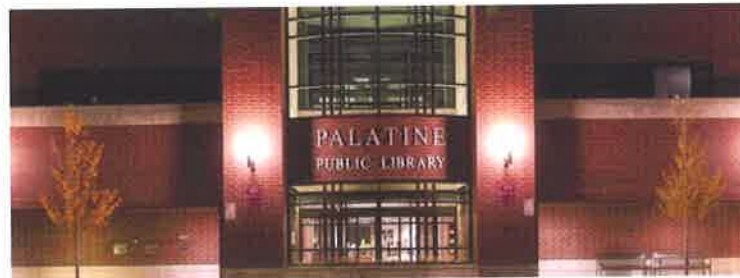

- Master of Library Science degree from an ALA-accredited school
- Experience in a high-level leadership role with budget responsibilities.

To apply for this position, please submit a cover letter, current resume and three professional references using the contact information below. Please include your last name in the title of any attached files and "Palatine" in the subject line of your email.

Salary is competitive and negotiable based on experience. Excellent benefits.
