

- Like Show more reactions
- · Reply
- · 3d

View 3 more replies

Write a reply

Kelly Przekota I hope it passes! Not sure it will tho 😞

They should put a sign up before the tours tho that say "enter at your own risk" 😊

1

Hide this

- Like Show more reactions
- · Reply

Derek Cadmus What's plan B if it doesn't?

1

Hide this

- Like Show more reactions
- Reply
- 2d

Kelly Przekota Leave the buckets in the hallways to catch the rain leaking through the ceiling, buy more nail polish so the kids can tag more cockroaches and make instagram accounts for them, and everyone wears helmets in the pool areas so the tiles that fall from the ceiling don't hit you and cause head injuries? 🤔👤 -

2

Hide this

- Like Show more reactions
- Reply
- 2d

Kathy Meade Kelly Przekota don't forget the purchase of gas masks for the pool so the kids don't burn their lungs. Maine South has made the local news twice for swimmers being sent to the hospital after being overwhelmed by chlorine fumes. I'd say the new filtration system is long overdue since they've been using the same one since the school was built in the 60s

3

Hide this

- Like Show more reactions
- Reply
- 2d
- Edited

Kelly Przekota Oh we already have ours 👤 -

Hide this

4

- Like Show more reactions
- Reply
- 2d

Kenneth J Migalski Kelly Przekota Really???

Hide this

- Like Show more reactions
- Reply
- 2d

Kelly Przekota It was for a Caddy Shack costume 🙄 /relax

But on a serious note: the high schools are falling down faster than London Bridge. The referendum NEEDS to pass if we want to keep our schools top notch! They're horrible right now

1

Hide this

- Like Show more reactions
- Reply
- 2d

-
- Ashley Hawkes I hope it passes. From the stories, pictures, etc the school is in dire need of some updates

Hide this

- Like Show more reactions
- · Reply
- · 2d

○

Kelly Przekota My husband works at East and asked if I could go grab him a plastic bin with latches so he could keep his coat and laptop case in the bin so the roaches don't find their way inside his belongings and end up getting brought home with him 🤢🤮

3

Hide this

- Like Show more reactions
- · Reply
- · 2d

Write a reply

○

○

○

○

