

FORMAL COMPLAINT

May 25, 2018

This complaint is a formal statement of events that occurred between January 23, 2018 and May 16, 2018.

On January 23, 2018 while posing for a board picture with an Eagle Scout, Trustee David Carrabotta lightly swiped his hand across my bottom.

Although it was an awkward moment I gave him the benefit of the doubt and chalked it up as being an inadvertent mistake. (photo Attachment 1)

The following morning, January 24, 2018 as part of a chain of text messages between Supervisor Morask and Assessor Moylan-Krey I texted this message,

"BTW when we posed for the photo last night Dave touched my ass. I don't think it was intentional but I'm not sure." (Attachment 2)

At a later date during our regular Monday morning breakfast meetings I also shared the incident with my longtime friend Walter Kazmierczak who is the Maine Township Commissioner.

On May 16, 2018 I attended the Maine Streamers 90 Year Old Birthday Party at Chateau Ritz with Clerk Pete Gialamas, Assessor Moylan-Krey, Trustee Susan Sweeney and Trustee Dave Carrabotta.

The board posed for a photograph at the front of the banquet room and as we were disassembling from the photo, Trustee Carrabotta again lightly swiped his hand across my bottom. At that time, as I believed this to be the third occurrence of something like this happening I turned to him and gave him a dirty look. He pretended as if he didn't see me. (Attachment 3)

Immediately after the swipe occurred as Clerk Gialamas, Assessor Moylan-Krey and I walked to our table I informed them of what had just happened. Clerk Gialamas mentioned at that time that there are also two Township employees that have complained about inappropriate interactions with Trustee Carrabotta.

In an e-mail interaction with Supervisor Morask on May 19, 2018, at 10:08 AM I shared the following:

"Yes it is insane! I didn't say anything to you yet, but I did share this with Pete and Susie immediately after it happened. Carrabotta touched my ass AGAIN at the 90 year old birthday party. He swipes his hand across is gently as if it was inadvertent. What I previously chalked up as accidental can no longer be viewed that way since it is at least the second time and possibly the third time. This last incident I immediately turned to him with a dirty look and he pretended he didn't see me." (Attachment 4)

I also shared that incident with Walter Kazmierczak.

I view the actions of Trustee Carrabotta as unwelcome and of a harassing nature.

ANUARY 25, 2018, 11:29 PM

When Ted Wyshel, 17, who is a senior at Maine South High School, heard a crash outside his home last Aug. 20, his first aid training kicked in and he grabbed the first aid kit he has had handy since he was in elementary school and he went out to help.

At the Maine Township Board meeting Tuesday, Jan. 23, he was honored for his quick thinking. Wyshel administered first aid to the two crash victims applying pressure to their wounds and keeping one of the victims who was slipping in and out of consciousness talking until paramedics arrived at the scene.

A member of Scout Troop 1, Park Ridge, Wyshel, became a Scout to pursue, among other things, his interest in first aid. He was awarded the rank of Eagle Scout last October.

The proclamation that was read at the meeting said in part, "I, Laura J. Morask, Supervisor of Maine Township, along with the Maine Township Board, do hereby honor and applaud Ted Wyshel for his passion and dedication to helping others and his invaluable contribution to our Community. His act of kindness and compassion is truly inspiring, and we wish him success in all his future endeavors."

CAPTION

I can make myself available on Monday. I'm not afraid of him and i can tell you I'd rather speak to an attorney than publicly go off on him in a public meeting.

He has no right to sexually harass Anyone but I'm more concerned about Dayna and Vicki because they are essentially his subordinates which makes it even more creepy. I'm confident his behavior is not isolated to women at the Township but is most likely a pattern of behavior.

Thanks for listening.

Kim,

Outrageous!

I think you should discuss with the attorneys--Jeff meeting me Monday at 1:00?

Or else possibly talk to ethics commission-this is crazy! I fully support you freaking calling him out.

Do you want me to set up a conference call with KL or are you free Monday afternoon?

I am more concerned in protecting you from this crap than his humiliation! I tried at my Xmas party to convince Dayna & Vikki to come forward but they did not want to disclose for fear of jobs. This is how abusers operate-gaslighting their V and trying to make them think all in head. The longer we hold off the more empowered he gets.

I'm not sure the best way to handle it, talk to the attorneys maybe? I do know if it occurs again I will loudly call him out on it and publicly embarrass him. Just a forewarning!
