

Cindy McDonald Grau So the Park District will pay even higher fees every month for our swimming pools that we only use a few months a year. Tax payers and users foot the bill.

· 4d

Kathy Meade Cindy McDonald Grau can a taxing body tax another taxing body?

· 4d

Cindy McDonald Grau Kathy Meade - it's a "fee"

· 4d

Kathy Meade Cindy McDonald Grau wait, never mind. It's a "fee"

· 4d

Cindy McDonald Grau Kathy Meade - as well as the SUW- if it ever gets implemented

· 4d

Kathy Meade So we can make sure everyone "pays their fair share" LOL!

· 4d

Cathy Krawitz They do realize 2016 was only two years ago. The headline "first time" is quite humorous to me.

· 4d

Donna Panzeca We need to all go to city hall and make sure they change our water source. Even their employees say they will never live here. Too expensive and they don't care to change anything 😊. Why would it matter to the officials???

· 4d · Edited

Kathy Meade The reasoning behind why the water supply hasn't been changed can be found farther down this feed. There are several articles linked to the topic and Both the mayor and aldermen have given thorough explanations on why it wasn't in the best interest of Park Ridge residents. You can take from that what you will.

· 4d

Kathy Meade <https://www.chicagotribune.com/.../ct-prh-water-supply-tl...>
CHICAGOTRIBUNE.COM

Park Ridge laments lack of info on plan to get Evanston water

· 4d