I think you said that Rick was better than Mary Wynn. Think again. I guess the 'feeling' about the seniors is pretty strong. Nothing that we'll be able to do other than withhold any donations to the park board.

p.s. I would be happy to serve a term on senior services. There's no hiding my feelings, so may as well keep them out in the open/♠

I'm really not interested in challenging Mary for the spot. She won the election handily, despite a fairly aggressive counter-movement from some of the seniors. I know that you feel that electing her to Board President is akin to a stick in the eye to Senior Services, but I really don't see it that way. Moreover, the new makeup of the Board is identical to the old makeup of the Board namely, there are six strong votes against entering into any type of "contract" with Senior Services.

In the end, Mary feels very passionate about taking a turn as President and I don't have any compelling reason not to let her have that chance. I am happy to take on the role next year, if that is the will of the Board.
