The co-owner of Pusheen Corporation has suggested moving his business out of Park Ridge if a mayoral veto of an ordinance allowing his office to expand is upheld by the City Council next month.

Tammy Kosala Kwiatkoski operating under an assumption that possibly there might be something better? there is plenty of other space to be had in that area to put in storefront. would be sad to deny a company who wants to build a future here the opportunity to do so. And I imagine the company and their visitors are patrons of local establishments. You need a good mixture of people and places. And with other restaurants closing and not reopening Gumba/Indian restaurant let's not push out other businesses.

 John Allan Yep - why would Park Ridge want to work with a company that is growing and calls Park Ridge home ? 😊 ☐
