-  Ingrid Groening Czech Arlene Levin I agree. Throwing money at a problem, doesn't always solve the problem. Kind of like the so called secure vestibules.

-  Tom Sotos Ingrid Groening Czech I too agree with about the secures vestibules. I fought against them from day one. My argument was very clear. First solve the multitude of other safety concerns before we spend money on vestibules that can not be affective with the other issues still unresolved.

I maintain that very same opinion to date.
